INTRODUCTION

[BACKGROUND OF THE PROBLEM]

Prepositions are short words employed in sentences to show the relationship nouns, pronouns or phrases have with other parts within the respective sentences. Prepositions are normally found positioned in the latter part of the sentence, but before a noun or pronoun. There are four main types: Prepositions of Time, Place, Direction and Location.

Prepositions of Time are used to show when something is happening. Common examples are In, On and At.

Prepositions of Place indicate the place or position of something. Common examples include - IN, ON and AT.

Prepositions of Direction are used to denote the direction in which something travels or moves. Eg: toward, to, from Prepositions of Location are employed to denote the location of an object.

Eg: IN, ON and AT.

The most commonly confused prepositions are IN, ON, AT because these three are commonly used to depict both time and position.

School students of lower level and sometimes ^{anyone} can get easily confused and struggle to identify the correct type of preposition and how to use the correct preposition in a sentence.

While prepositions are limited in number, they are important because they act as vital markers to the structure of a sentence, they mark special relationships between persons, objects and location. It is important to think carefully about how we incorporate the teaching and learning of preposition into our classes.

The use of wrong prepositions can often change the meaning of the sentence. Hence, students should be made aware what each preposition functions as and how to use them correctly while speaking and writing.

PROBLEM

* STATEMENT OF THE PROBLEM

A study to develop a program to improve the correct use of prepositions - IN, ON and AT of Grade VI students using different techniques and to study its effectiveness.

* NEED

1. There is a need and necessity as teachers to ensure students to understand correctly the use of prepositions IN, ON and AT while speaking and writing.
2. The study enables the understanding of the effectiveness of the program and how it helps teachers implement the same.
3. It also facilitates students to build the necessary skills while using English language.
4. It can benefit students on a social platform.

* IMPORTANCE

1. The study enabled students to get acquainted with the proper means to use prepositions.
2. The study cleared the student's understanding and also reduced the confusion in using in, on and at.
3. The study enabled to provide a clear framework of the proper use of prepositions in English.

* OBJECTIVES

1. To find the achievement and understanding of students in a test on prepositions.
2. To improve student's understanding on the correct use of prepositions while speaking and writing.
3. To implement a program that improves the students' understanding of the use of prepositions.
4. To study the outcome and effectiveness of the program conducted.

★ HYPOTHESES

Following Research Hypothesis and Null Hypothesis will be determined for the students.

→ Research Hypothesis

There will be a significant difference in the mean scores of the pre-test and post-test of students.

→ Null Hypothesis

There will be no significant difference in the mean scores of pre-test and post-test of students.

METHODOLOGY

* ACTUAL METHODOLOGY

In the present study, the methodology used was experimental method.

* RESEARCH DESIGN

For the study, single group pre-test and post-test design was used.

* POPULATION

All the students of std VI CBSE Board were the population for the research.

* SAMPLE

205 students of Std VI of THE HDFC SCHOOL, PUNE were the sample for the study.

* SAMPLING

The students were selected through Random sampling Method.

TOOLS FOR DATA COLLECTION AND ANALYSIS

DATA COLLECTION

A pretest and post test will be conducted for data collection on the topic taught.

DATA ANALYSIS

Data Analysis will be done through mean, median, mode and Z-Score.

* RESEARCH DESIGN

For the study, single group pre-test and post-test design was used.

* POPULATION

All the students of Std VI CBSE Board were the population for the research.

* SAMPLE

25 students of Std VI D of THE HDFC SCHOOL, PUNE were the sample for the study.

* SAMPLING

The students were selected through Random Sampling Method.

TOOLS OF DATA SELECTION & ANALYSIS

* Selection of appropriate Tool

The selection of the tool was an achievement test. This tool was selected for the experimental method used for the research. This tool was selected as the pre-test and post-test scores can be selected and also the mean scores of the test can be calculated.

The achievement test determines the effectiveness of the program and also the understanding level of the students and mastery of the content.

* Tool for which objective

The achievement test has the following objectives :

- To identify the learning difficulties and errors of the students on the correct use of prepositions.

- To monitor the students' learning and provide feedback to the students.
- To measure the performance of the students in the test and to assign grades to them.

Q3. Circle the preposition of time and underline the preposition of place. (1x6=6)

I was born in Seattle, Washington on the 23rd of May in 1984. Seattle is in the State of Washington in the United States. That was many years ago. Now, I live in Istanbul in Turkey. I sometimes go to a movie on the weekend. In the summer, usually in June, I go home to visit my family in America. My family and I go to the beach and relax in the sun in the morning and in the afternoon! In the evening, we often eat at a restaurant with our friends. Sometimes, we go to a garden at night. On other weekends, I drive to the countryside. We like to meet friends at a cafe for coffee. In fact, we'll meet some friends at a great Turkish restaurant on Sunday!

Q4. Rewrite the sentences using the correct prepositions IN/ ON/ AT. (1x5=5)

a. John's birthday party is at Tuesday.

b. Write the heading on the top of the page.

c. I see that ice cream is not in the menu.

d. She's going to travel on a boat tomorrow.

e. I am planning to go out with my friends in the weekend.

7.	16-2-23	Conduct of Post-Test	after the program was implemented, post-test on the same was conducted.
8.	17-2-23	Data analysis	The answer sheets of pre-test and post-test were corrected and marks scored for both were tabulated and student wise marks were entered for both the tests. Difference was calculated and mean scores were obtained for both pre-test and post-test. Difference in mean scores was calculated.

18-2-23

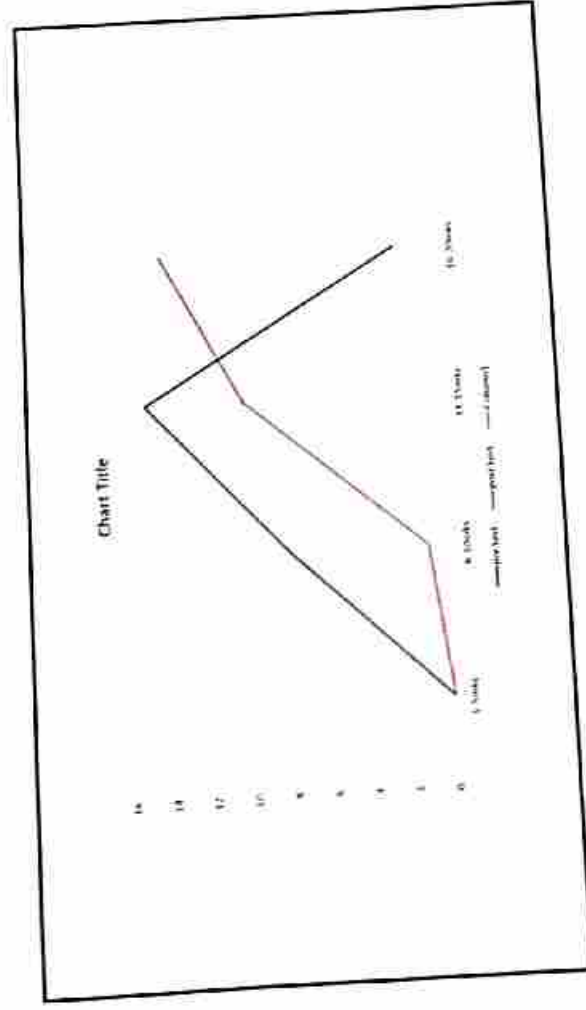

Conclusion

Student's score in post-test improved as compared to pre-test. A significant difference in marks was observed. Hypothesis was ^{verified} and null hypothesis was rejected.

Analysis of Data

Pretest

Post test

FINDINGS

- From the data collected, it is seen that the students understood the proper use of prepositions in a sentence.
- The increase in mean scores in post-test over pre-test proved that students became capable of using prepositions correctly.
- Students felt more confidence and their self-esteem increased after solving the post-test.
- Students understood the prepositions IN, ON and AT and where to use them in a sentence.
- This improved not only their writing skills but also speaking skills as students learned how to frame grammatically correct sentences.
- Students' increased knowledge will help them in all the subjects.

CONCLUSION

• I conclude that this method / program of experimental research was very useful for students as it helped them in speedy and accurate and correct use of prepositions in a sentence.

✓ Students showed significant improvement in scores.

Hypothesis is hereby verified and null hypothesis is rejected.

There was a significant difference in the pre-test and post-test scores with respect to the mean.

✓ The whole program (activities, worksheets and classroom blended teaching) helped students in English as well as other language / English related subjects.

I was born in Seattle, Washington on the 23rd of May in 1984. Seattle is in the State of Washington in the United States. That was many years ago. Now, I live in Istanbul in Turkey. I sometimes go to a movie on the weekend. In the summer, usually in June, I go home to visit my family in America. My family and I go to the beach and relax in the sun in the morning and in the afternoon! In the evening, we often eat at a restaurant with our friends. Sometimes, we go to a garden at night. On other weekends, I drive to the countryside. We like to meet friends at a cafe for coffee. In fact, we'll meet some friends at a great Turkish restaurant on Sunday!

I was born in Seattle, Washington on the 23rd of May in 1984. Seattle is in the State of Washington in the United States. That was many years ago. Now, I live in Istanbul in Turkey. I sometimes go to a movie on the weekend. In the summer, usually in June, I go home to visit my family in America. My family and I go to the beach and relax in the sun in the morning and in the afternoon. In the evening, we often eat at a restaurant with our friends. Sometimes, we go to a garden at night. On other weekends, I drive to the countryside. We like to meet friends at a cafe for coffee. In fact, we'll meet some friends at a great Turkish restaurant on Sunday!

INTRODUCTION

A preposition is a word or group of words used before a noun, pronoun, or noun phrase to show direction, time, place, location, spatial relationships, or to introduce an object. Some examples of prepositions are words like "in," "at," "on," "of," and "to." Prepositions in English are highly idiomatic.

Prepositions are seen to show some key characteristics and perform some vital functions when used in sentences. Let us look at the various uses of prepositions in English.

They are used to show the direction of something.

They can refer to the time of something happening.

They can be used to denote the position or location of an object in the sentence.

They are also used to represent spatial relationships.

Prepositional phrases, in particular, can be used to do all of these when used in sentences

A study of the effectiveness of a program developed to improve the use of prepositions in English Grammar for Grade VI students.

► Based on the different uses and functions of prepositions, they can be divided into four main types. They are as follows:

- Prepositions of Time - used to show when something is happening.
- Prepositions of Place - indicate the place or position of something.
- Prepositions of Direction - used to denote the direction in which something travels or moves.
- Prepositions of Location - employed to denote the location of a particular object.

STATEMENT OF THE PROBLEM

A study of the effectiveness of a program developed to improve the use of Prepositions in English Grammar for Grade VI students.

NEED

- Prepositions are always used to indicate the relationship of a noun or phrase to something else.
- The study enabled the understanding of the program and will help other teachers to implement the same.
- While prepositions are limited in number, they are important because they act as vital markers to the structure of a sentence; they mark special relationships between persons, objects, and locations
- There is a necessity as teachers to ensure students understand we'll the use of Prepositions in speaking and writing.

IMPORTANCE

- ▶ 1. The study enabled students to get acquainted with the proper means to use Prepositions.
- ▶ 2. The study cleared the students' understanding and also reduced the overuse and underuse of prepositions.
- ▶ 3. The study enabled to provide a clear framework of the proper use of prepositions in English.

IMPORTANCE

- ▶ 1. To find the achievement of students in a test on Prepositions.
- ▶ 2. To improve understanding on the use of Prepositions.
- ▶ 3. To implement a program to improve the use of IN, ON, AT.
- ▶ 4. To study the effectiveness of the program conducted.

HYPOTHESIS

▶ Research Hypothesis

There will be a significant difference in the mean scores of pretest and post test of students.

▶ Null Hypothesis

There will be no difference in the mean scores of pretest and post test of students.

METHODOLOGY

▶ Research Methodology

In the present study, the methodology used was experimental method.

▶ Research Design

Single group pre-test and post-test design was used.

▶ Sampling Procedure

▶ Population

All students of std 6th CBSE Board were selected as the population.

▶ Sample

25 students of Grade VI D of THE HDFC SCHOOL, Pune were selected as the sample.

▶ Sampling

Students were selected through random sampling method.

SELECTION

- Selection of appropriate tool
- The achievement test comprising of the pre-test and post-test was selected as a tool to decide the effectiveness of the program.
- Tool for which objective
- The achievement test has the following objectives:
 - To identify the learning difficulties of students.
 - To monitor the students learning and to provide feedback to them.
 - To measure the performance of students in the test.
 - To assign grades.

ACTUAL PROCEDURE

- Selection of the Problem.
- Background and review of related literature.
- Development of the program.
- Development of Achievement Test.
- Conduct of pre-test.
- Implementation of the program.
- Conduct of post-test.
- Data Analysis.
- Conclusion

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSION

► Findings

- The students understanding in the proper use of Prepositions improved.
- There was an increase in mean scores in post-test over pre-test.
- Students interest in learning improved.
- There was active participation in the activities involved in the learning process.

► Conclusion

- This method of experimentation was effective for improvement in the use of Prepositions IN, ON, AT of Grade VI students.
- The hypothesis is hence verified and null hypothesis is rejected.
